

Saturday, March 20, 2010

10AM - 4PM

at the James Kerney Center of Mercer County College

North Broad & Academy Streets, Trenton, NJ

Admission is free. Reduced-fee parking.

GREEN EVERYTHING will feature exhibitors and presenters on green building
 green home management
 green landscaping
 green eating
 green shopping
 green small-business management and more...

This is the day to learn how to "go green" and save money doing it – at home, work, school -- whoever you are, whatever you do. The day will include a theatrical presentation on sustainability by folks from Trenton's own Passage Theatre Company.
